Occupational Therapy Parent Workshop

Supporting Sensory Processing Differences at Home

This workshop has been developed for parents of children and young people who present with sensory processing differences.

The workshop aims to:

- Provide an overview of sensory processing and the behavioural differences you may see at home.
- Provide practical strategies which can be used at home to support your child's sensory needs.

West Midlands Speech and Language Therapy Presents....

The workshop will be held face to face
within your child's school on Friday 29th
